THE SONG OF THE TEXAS CORN.

I was dry and dusty:
I was weak and weary:
Now I'm glad and happy:
And the earth looks cheery.
Oh, the soaking,
With provoking,
Leaves for smoking rain:
Not and silky,
Mud and milky
Gives my golden grain.
Listen to the laughter
Of my leaves as making
With the wind round after
Leaves, softly shaking.
Oh, heartening,
Breathing, living,
Hratch pulling total
Come, careless me,
Kiss me, bless me,
Once and once again!

Let your heart be singing:
Feel your veins, peoples!
Set the joy bells ringing:
In the lofty steeples.
Praises render
To the sower
Of the joyous rain:
Of the living,
The high singing,
Of the peaceful rain.
—John P. Bjorler in Galveston News.

Seed Decorations.

The use of seeds for purposes of simple ornamentation is very old, and has of late been revived with good effect for embroidering fancy articles. The best seeds are those of the melon, vegetable marrow and cucumber, assorted according to size, shape and color. After the design has been traced on the material, which may be velvet, plush, cloth or silk, the stalks are put in with gold or maize colored silk in stem, chain or herringbone stitch, and the leaves outlined in a similar manner. Then the seeds are placed in position and fixed by a stitch at either end, care being taken to make them lie flat.

Among the flowers which can be imitated in seed work are marguerites, asters, starwort, jasmine, etc. Ears of corn or barley are very effective, though more difficult to work, owing to the seeds having to be packed close together. On a foundation of maroon velvet or crimson cloth the seeds stand out like ivory in bold relief. The only of the buds is done in crewel work or silk. This work can be adapted to fancy articles of various kinds, such as table borders and centers, banner screens, tea cozies, etc.—Decorator and Furnisher.

SILVER PARTY TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT, JAMES B. WEAVER, of Iowa. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, JAMES G. FIELD, of Virginia. FOR SENATOR, THOMAS WARR, of Eschsch County. FOR SENATOR, M. S. BONNIFIELD, of Humboldt County. FOR SENATOR, C. O. POWING, of Washoe County. FOR SENATOR, GEORGE S. NIXON, of Humboldt County. FOR SENATOR, GEORGE BROWN, of Storey County. FOR SENATOR, W. J. WESTERFIELD, of Lyon County. FOR SENATOR, WM. M. STEWART, of Ormsby County. FOR REPRESENTATIVE IN CONGRESS, FRANCIS G. NEWLANDS, of Washoe County. FOR JUDGE OF SUPREME COURT, O. H. BELKNAP, of Ormsby County. FOR JUDGE OF SUPREME COURT, HENRY L. FINE, of Washoe County. FOR JUDGE OF SUPREME COURT, CHARLES E. MACK, of Storey County.

THE PARTY OF PRINCIPLE.

There are three parties in Nevada today contending for supremacy. Two of them, the Republican and Democratic, represent Wall street ideas, which, as to well known, bode no good to the State. The National platform and candidates of these parties are opposed to the remonetization of silver. They do not want the metal coined at the ratio of sixteen to one, nor even twenty-five to one, unless Europe is satisfied with the arrangement. As it cost Europe, according to report, half a million dollars to get silver demonetized in the United States, of course it will not consent to its remonetization at any ratio, consequently no relief can be expected from the so-called International Monetary Convention, should it ever meet.

There is only one party in the field that favors free coinage, and that party is opposed to the election of Harrison or Cleveland. As it is a party of principle, its platform declares in plain words that it is for the remonetization of silver, and its leaders, not only in this State, but throughout the Union, proclaim from the rostrum that they favor the full remonetization of silver, and, as proof of their sincerity, will vote for no man for Executive or Legislative office who is opposed to it.

Compare the language of the Silver party platform and the declarations of its candidates on the silver question with the utterances of the Harrison and Cleveland men on the subject. The former unequivocally declare for free coinage without ifs, ands or buts. The others say they are for silver, but prove the insincerity of the assertion by advocating the election of Cleveland or Harrison, who are committed against it. The Silver party supports only silver men for Electors, Senator, Representatives and Members of the Legislature, each and all of whom are outspoken for free coinage and will not hesitate to proclaim their principles in the halls of Congress, in the State Capitol and even under the shadow of that gold bug eleemosynary hospital, the United States Mint, at Carson. These are the men the people of Nevada should honor with their suffrages. They do not masquerade as silver men, while supporting a Wall street candidate for President who will use the whole power of the Administration to defeat any measure that is calculated to benefit Nevada by restoring its prosperity and rehabilitating its deserted mining camps.

GOLD BUG PRIMARIES.

The Harrison Anti-silver men held primary elections in Storey and Ormsby counties last Monday. In Storey county the free coinage Republicans paid no attention to the primaries, but decided to join with the free coinage Democrats in organizing a silver party and putting a Legislative and local ticket in the field. Only 344 votes were polled in the four wards of Virginia City and the two wards of Gold Hill. The silver men claim the county by a majority of not less than 800. In Ormsby county the election was held under the Crawford system, and 457 votes were cast, the candidates for local offices drumming up everybody that could vote.

AGRICULTURAL POSSIBILITIES OF NEVADA.

At the instance of the State Agricultural Society, Hon. Francis G. Newlands will deliver an address on the agricultural possibilities of Nevada at the Pavilion this evening. Mr. Newlands is a cultured and entertaining speaker, and the subject is one in which every Nevada is interested. The Society was organized for the purpose, among other things, of promoting agriculture, and new ideas will doubtless be advanced on that most important matter this evening.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS!

G. A. R. Encampment.

WASHINGTON, September 21.—The most interesting feature of this afternoon's session was the selection of Indianapolis as the place for the next encampment. The Union of the Veterans Union, which has thirty thousand members, preceded the encampment meeting today with a fine parade up Pennsylvania Avenue. General Yoder, Commander-in-Chief, and a large staff, headed by Adjutant General Street, rode at the head of the procession. At a subsequent meeting General Yoder delivered his annual address, reviewing the progress of the order. General Green Clay Smith offered resolutions, which were unanimously adopted, expressing sincere sympathy with comrade Harrison because of the serious illness of his wife and a sincere prayer for her recovery. A committee, of which ex-President Hayes is a member, was appointed to take measures for the establishment of an industrial home for sons of veterans.

A number of corps reunions were held during the day. On board the Kearsarge it was marine corps day, and the old sailors jollied with the land lubbers. Captain Herbert Winslow, son of Rear Admiral Winslow, who commanded the Kearsarge when she fought the Alabama, delivered the address. Steps were taken to-day having in view the birth of a new G. A. R. subordinate organization under the title of "The minute men of '61," to be composed of all who entered the services under President Lincoln's call of April 15, 1861. Massachusetts has a State association of this character, and in Wisconsin a similar organization has been started. The Association of Ex-Prisoners of War elected Marion T. Henderson of this city, President. The Association is interested in having Congress act upon a bill granting a pension of $2 a day to all ex-prisoners who were imprisoned over a certain number of days. A committee was appointed to consider the question further.

Fearful Railroad Accident.

CLEVELAND, O., September 21.—What will undoubtedly prove to be the most disastrous accident in the history of the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway took place early this morning near Shreve. The fast east-bound express train collided with the west-bound freight, both running at full speed. The collision occurred on a sharp curve and in a cut where neither crew was able to see the other train approaching. Immediately after the crash flames burst forth, and it is believed, but two or three persons were killed outright, the others having been pinned down and slowly roasted to death. Thirteen burned and blackened trunks were taken from the wreck. Nine people are seriously injured. Two postal cars, filled with through mail, one express car and three freight cars were consumed by the fire. This afternoon $50,000 in a silver brick were taken from beneath the masses of iron and cinders. Some of the silver was melted. A temporary track has been built around the wreck and travel is partially resumed. The wreck was a terrible one and with the exception of three Pullman cars, the passenger train was a shapeless mass. As soon as the people of Shreve heard of the wreck many of them hastened to the scene with local physicians and tried to extinguish the flames and rescue the unfortunate in the day coaches. The fire gained too great a headway, however, and little could be done. Those that perished were pinned down by timbers and people outside had to stand back while the helpless victims burned slowly to death. The freeman of the freight train had a horrible death, as he was caught in a cab and his frightfully burned body dangled in the air in view of hundreds who visited the scene, the wreckers being unable to get it because of the heat.

A Fractional Joke Ends Seriously.

CARSON, Nev., September 21.—Harry Brown, Frank Blethen and Horace Dorsey put up a practical joke on one Jake Muller, of Carson, last night to rob him on the Hot Springs road. The plot worked all right until Muller was shot in the face with a blank cartridge. Powder entered his cheeks, almost putting his eyes out. He then drew a revolver loaded with plank cartridges palmed off on him for the occasion, and fired with intent to kill. The jokers got away, and when Muller arrived at The Springs his face was bleeding from the wound and powder wounds. He has suffered intense pain since the accident and is marked for life.

Telegraphers Walk Out.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, September 21.—The telegraphers of the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Northern to the number of about a hundred and eighty, went out at noon in obedience to the order of Chief Ramsey. It is reported to-night that Ramsey is negotiating with the officials of other railroad organizations with a view of securing their aid in the struggle. The telegraphers refuse to talk on this point. Trains are running with but little delay as yet.

PORTLAND, Or., September 21.—At the session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows to-day the headquarters of the order were changed from Columbus, Ohio, to Baltimore, Md.

To the Public.
As the fact that I was elected a delegate to the Republican County Convention and being nominated by the People's party for the office of County Clerk has caused some comment, and places me in a false light before the people, I wish it understood that I was not aware that my name had been placed on the Republican ticket until the day of the primary election. I am a Weaver man and a member of the Washoe County Silver League.

THE ARCADE SALOON,

THE STATE FAIR.

Doings of the Third Day—The Bicycle Races—Excellent Speed Program.

Virginia Day—The Pavilion a Scene of Beauty—Snap Shots.

The third day showed not the least abatement in the interest manifested in the fair. The town, already crowded by strangers, was filled to overflowing by the arrival of a special train from Virginia, which added to the numbers already here. Virginia not only sends a large crowd, but a jolly one also. The day was a perfect one until late in the afternoon, and it looks like the whole week would be the same. The disagreeable wind of the first day has melted into a gentle zephyr. The streets are well sprinkled and free from dust. The town looks neat, pretty and attractive. To-day the leading stores will close, thus giving the anxious and tired employees an opportunity to take in the fair. Every train from the west and east have brought in a liberal supply of visitors and all parts of the State are well represented, not only by people, but by many exhibits. Being a State Fair, it is eminently proper that the citizens of all portions of the State should take pains to represent their portions of the State with its important industries. All the communities seem to be well represented.

Reno is fully alive to the importance of the occasion. The hotels are filled to overflowing and the stores crowded with customers. Money is easy and liberally circulated. A fair criterion of the interest and liberality of the crowd is the extent to which gambling is indulged in. This week witnesses a greater variety of games of chance than ever before, all seemingly well patronized. The town is most happily free from things, toughs and the usual light fingered gentry that follow in the wake of fairs. Nothing of a disorderly nature has taken place, few arrests have been made and a jovial good humor pervades the entire crowd. It is only hoped that the week will progress with as much success as has marked the first three days, for if such is the case the fair this year will be a memorable one in every respect.

VIRGINIA DAY.
Certain days of the week are always set apart for our sister cities. Yesterday was Virginia day. They always send us a royal crowd, and the fair takes in the sheikhs, for they are as generous as they are large hearted. They give the day an unusual zest. There are no class of men equal to the celebrated Comstock miner. They are men in every sense of the word. Reno used every endeavor to give them a welcome worthy their interest in the success of the State Fair. The train bearing the Virginians arrived about 10 o'clock. It was crowded, and filled the town to overflowing. The greater portion immediately proceeded to the track and put in the day there. An unusually good programme was prepared for their benefit. They returned late in the evening, feeling fully repaid for their day's trip. To-day is Reno day and to-morrow will be Carson day.

AT THE GROUND.
Owing to the early events on the program the crowd turned back towards early in the day. Ten o'clock saw a good, large crowd on the grand stand and a large number of stockmen and sports on the ground. The lovers of bicycling were all on hand to witness the interesting contests on the wheels. Nearly all the Virginia folks were present during the forenoon. The stock stalls attracted a very large degree of interest. The restaurant, bar and other booths did a land office business. When 10 o'clock arrived every one was prepared for the exciting sport to follow.

THE BICYCLE RACES.
The management of the fair presented an unusually interesting feature this year in the way of bicycle races. The bicycle as a machine of locomotion is fast gaining a foothold in America and only lately additional reputation has been given the use of the wheel by the remarkable time of 2:04 by a champion wheelman who beat the queen of the turf, Nancy Hanks. In anticipation of this interesting feature a large crowd early gathered at the track. The following events took place:

First.—One-mile, flying start, safety or ordinary. Those who started were H. K. Brown, Frank Barnes and N. E. Wilson. Wilson won easily. Time, 3:03 1/2.

Second.—Quarter-mile boys' race under sixteen. J. S. Werrin, Curtis Thaxter, H. W. Parker and Raymond Richard. The race was won by Richard. Time, 44 1/2.

Third.—Quarter-mile, safety, flying start. H. K. Brown, N. E. Wilson and Frank Barnes. It was a close contest and was won by Brown in 3:04 1/2.

Fourth.—Half-mile, ordinary, standing start. N. E. Wilson, H. K. Brown and H. M. Dorsey. Brown took a header at the quarter and was soon out of sight, while the race was won by Wilson. Time, 1:25 1/2.

THE CHARIOT RACES.
Secretary Stoddard announced that the race was postponed. It will take place to-day without fail. The chariot failing to arrive was the cause of the postponement.

AT THE TRACK.
The advent of the Comstockers; the early attraction in the forenoon, with the additional interest manifested, filled the grounds with spectators early in the day. By the time the races were on the grand stand was a jam of humanity. Nearly every one on the grand stand were ladies and children. They took a keen interest in the delights of the race and manifested their approval by cheers and waving handkerchiefs as the favorites won. Pretty costumed jockeys were the favorites with them on the ground. The men held complete dominion, jostling and pushing each other in a good natured way. They kept close watch on the pool boxes and figured winning combinations. The wheel of fortune kept up its merry whirl, but with a result of pleasure rather than gain. The colored gentleman yelled himself hoarse in his endeavor to inveigle the hay seed but to little avail. The band still furnished its lovely music in unstinted qualities. The crowd waited patiently and presently the bell rang announcing the first racing event of the afternoon.

YESTERDAY'S RACES.
The first event was a running stake; 3 year-olds 1 1-16 miles, $250 added. The entries were Braw Scott, by G. W. Watson, ridden by Clancy; Lottie Mills by H. Ruddy, ridden by Nicolas. Lottie Mills seemed to be a steady favorite selling at $20 with $8 for Braw Scott. The book-makers wanted large odds on Lottie Mills, but failed to do a thriving business. Pools sold heavily on Lottie Mills. She took the lead by a length. Braw Scott gaining slightly while at the three-quarter post, they were well together and on the home stretch. Lottie came sailing easily in a winner. Time 1:52.

The second event was a running, one mile, purse $300. H. Willis entered Martinet and R. W. Curtis entered Borealis. Comes rode Martinet and Cook Borealis. Martinet was the prime favorite. At the start they were even but Martinet gained a slight advantage and kept increasing it until the finish, coming in on a gallop a safe winner.

The third event was the 2:25 class, trotting race. Purse $500.

The starters were Col. Hickman, Dubee, and Maud H. Here being scratched. The pools were sold 10 to 4 in favor of Col. Hickman and Maud H. took the first heat in 2:30. Col. Hickman second.

The second heat was won by Col. Hickman. Time 2:31 1/2. Maud H. second.

The third heat Col. Hickman took the lead and maintained it coming in a good half length in the lead with Maud H. a good second. Time 2:28 1/2.

In the fourth heat Col. Hickman came under the wire first winning the race. Time 2:30 1/2.

The fourth event was a trotting, 2:50 class. $300, with Flora A. Little Phil, Billy Ervine and Lady Mac as starters the others being scratched. The first heat was won by Lady Mac in 2:40 1/2, with Flora A. second and Billy Ervine third.

The second heat was a pretty race between Ervine and Lady Mac. The latter was given the heat though Ervine came in about a head in advance but broke four times on the course. Time 2:39 1/2.

The third heat was won by Billy Ervine, with Flora A. second. Time 2:42 1/2.

The fourth heat was very close. Ervine coming under the wire first with Lady Mac second. Time 2:43.

The fifth heat and race was won by Lady Mac. Time 2:40.

The last event was the two-year-old trotting stake. Purse $420. The starters were Ruby, Thompson, and Fireman. The first heat was taken by Thompson, with Fireman a good second. Ruby coming under the wire about 40 seconds after the others. Time 3:02.

Thompson took the second heat and race Time 3:02. Thompson was the favorite at the pools with very little betting on the field.

The colts did surprising work and made the race without a break.

THE PAVILION.

To really appreciate the State Fair one has to see the Pavilion. The grounds, with the fine stock exhibits and the fascinating race course with music, gaming and excitement, is apt to overshadow that department, which truly represents Nevada as a great State. Here are found the work of Nevada artists, the fine productions of home talent and ability, the varied richness of her mineral resources, the wonderful scope of her agricultural possibilities, and every sort of handiwork representation of the genius, talent, enterprise and industry of Nevada people.

The Superintendent of the Pavilion, W. O. H. Martin, has spared no pains to make it a success. In his work he was aided by the Reno ladies whose untiring efforts have made the Pavilion a place of surpassing beauty and dazzling splendor. Mrs. W. O. H. Martin was in charge, assisted by Mrs. W. W. Pinniger, Mrs. J. C. Fulton, Mrs. L. D. Folcom, Mrs. H. Fulton, Mrs. Comstock, Mrs. Becker, Mrs. Cheney, Mrs. Chambers, Mrs. Frank Bell, Mrs. Greenlaw and Mrs. Stewart, all of whom constitute the Woman's Guild of Trinity Church. They were divided into committees, each committee having charge of some special feature of the work. Great credit is due the ladies for the efficient and successful manner in which they have performed the work. They have been making preparations for some time and have been untiring and increasing in their efforts during the week. The handsome appearance of the Pavilion and the many well deserved compliments paid the pretty scene is but a small reward for their efforts. Each one individually sought to do her best and as a result the Pavilion, from an artistic standpoint, is a pleasing success.

MISS GINN'S ROOM.
At the upper end of the hall and in the central line of exhibit is the elegant booth of Miss Emma Gibbs. It is in the form of a Japanese tent and contains every variety of fancy work. A number of handsome screens of chenille and armoire work, with dainty work baskets, stands and fans, all make up an exceedingly pretty booth. When lighted up at night with the Japanese lanterns it is one of the most attractive portions of the Pavilion.

MISS JENNY TORREYSON.
In the southwest corner of the pavilion is a valuable and beautiful collection of paintings, pen, pencil and sketch, porcelain and China painting. Miss Torreyson

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

is the creator of the entire collection which has taken years of painstaking study and work. All the paintings and sketches are from nature, which gives them an additional interest and value. The pen and pencil sketches are real treasures of art. The sketches include scenes on the Pacific Coast. One taken at Ross Station, California, is a perfect gem. A number of studies in faces are exceedingly interesting. A head in imitation of the old German style is a quiet study. In the collection are to be found specimens of Dresden, Daltan and Carlebad styles. A screen on which is a beautiful representation of apple blossoms with a study in violets and one in lilacs make a trio of very handsome floral pieces. Miss Torreyson is an artist of great merit and her versatility can be readily seen in the great variety of styles of painting represented. The exhibit forms one of the most charming in the Pavilion. Lovers of the artistic and beautiful can find a great deal to interest them in this corner.

Z. LEVY AND BROS.
At the west end of the Pavilion Levy & Bros. have a space reserved in which can be seen a fine collection representing all lines of their stock. Dress goods, lace and a shoe case of handsome and delicate handkerchief made up the collection.

JOHN SUNDERLAND.
The northeast corner of the Pavilion is taken by the well known establishment of John Sunderland. His entire stock is represented. It is most artistically arranged, and as a window dresser Mr. Robert Morrow is an expert and has a happy faculty of making everything look its best. Trunks, valises, dress goods, men's furnishings goods, representing the latest Eastern styles, makes a handsome corner. One would think he was looking into a Broadway or Pennsylvania Avenue window full of the latest styles. Mr. Sunderland's exhibit is a fine one. He is one of our representative business men and in his line has no equal on the coast.

A. J. RODGERS.
A neat case filled with a variety of perfumes, cosmetics and toilet articles represents one of our leading druggists.

PHOTOGRAPHS.
The Riverside Photograph Gallery has a fine collection of well known and handsome Reno "phizzes." The collection is a fine one.

MISS MINNIE CHAPIN.
On the north side of the Pavilion is a beautiful collection of crayon and pencil sketches, also water colors. They include a variety of Nevada studies and display great merit. The four larger pictures (crayons) are the center of attraction and call forth much favorable comment.

GEORGE ENSLIN.
The well known sign painter of Reno, has a large collection of paintings which cannot but attract attention by their beauty. The large picture of the Yosemite is true to nature, and a sublime representation of that famous place. The collection includes a number of small paintings. The collection is a worthy and creditable one. Mr. Enslin is an artist of no mean ability.

JOHN PERKINS.
The well known candy manufacturer, has a tempting display of confectionary. The girls linger near in the hopes that their escorts may be impressed with the necessity of the hour. It is a very handsome display, abounding in sweetness.

E. C. SHERIDAN AND CO.

The above well known furniture company of Reno have a large space devoted to a display of their goods. It is a large, stylish and valuable display. It includes all styles and varieties in this line. The collection has been artistically arranged and is the center of attraction.

CRAYON WORK.

Four large crayon studies, the work of Mrs. N. J. Donovan, attracts widespread attention. The portraits of Senator Victor and Governor Colcord are excellent. Two others, being horse heads and deer, are equally good. Mrs. Donovan won many fine eponyms in San Francisco from well known artists. The deer study is from Edward Landner, and the horse heads are from the original of Herring. Mrs. Donovan has given Nevada quite a reputation in the line of crayon work. The display speaks volumes for her as an artist of great ability.

PIANOS.
Mr. Hodges, agent for Spencer and Co. of San Francisco have a fine collection of Pianos. The make is Conover Bros.

MRS. E. M. CLARKE.
Mrs. E. M. Clark of Carson has her elegant assortment of fancy work. This department is one of the prettiest, and to the ladies the most interesting in the Pavilion. The collection embraces all articles of fancy work in all the different styles. The articles are rich and delicate in texture, and exquisitely made. Mrs. Clarke has had her collection here a number of years but each adds to its general attractiveness. The collection is so large that it would be impossible to describe it in detail, but suffice to say it is one of the beauties of the Pavilion, and worthy of careful inspection.

DR. H. H. FREDRICKS.
Doctor Fredricks has originated a most unique and original exhibit. It is a fac simile of his dental office. The exhibit cost a good deal of time and labor, but it is surely both a comical and yet highly creditable display. Doctor Fredrick is a genius and a skilled mechanic as the exhibit will show in its detail a wonderful construction. It draws a crowd who admire and compliment it. Those who miss it miss the oddity of the Pavilion. With the exception of the skeletons the entire exhibit is the handwork of Dr. Fredrick and shows both enterprise and skill on his part.

MINERAL EXHIBITS.
The Mining Department of the State University gives a complete mineral exhibit which is a new feature of the Pavilion. It is interesting and educational. The collection has a perfect line of specimens in tin, copper, gold, silver, zinc and iron ores. The copper collection is a handsome one. There is an infinite variety of crystals; also specimens of manganese, salt, antimony, borax, cobalt and nickel. The exhibit is a worthy representation of the State University. The department is under the Professorship of R. D. Jackson and reflect credit on the University and Mining Department.

Mrs. R. R. Bigelow, Mrs. Chas. Hobbins and Miss Sheldon of Virginia City, have several cases filled with painted china, which presents a very pretty appearance and receives many well deserved compliments.

A large case filled with fine china adorns the lower end of the hall. It is the property of Reno ladies. The collection contains many rare and unique pieces.

There are a set of Dresden plates, an assortment of Royal Worcester, Lenoxes and Doulton works. Several Haviland fish sets exquisitely painted. It is an interesting collection.

The above descriptions include most of the important exhibits. There are a large number of small exhibits in nearly every line. The fancy work is well represented and the entire list of exhibits is equal in number and excellence to former years.

THE LOWER FLOOR.
This department is devoted to the mechanical and farm productions. It is well filled with a variety of unique exhibits.

THE EXPERIMENT STATION.

This department under the charge of Prof. McDowell is one of great credit to our State. It is doing a vast amount of scientific investigations which will ultimately be of great value to our State. Prof. McDowell is energetic, learned and practical. His work has brought forth manifold results. In the collection are cereals of every variety in bunches and in bottles. There are 56 varieties of potatoes. Fruits and vegetables. There are seven varieties of oats, the same of barley and twenty of wheat. The sugar beets are well represented. In this connection Prof. F. H. Hillman has a collection of destructive insects and their remedies. This is a question of interest to the farmers and will repay a close inspection.

Prof. Wilson and Stadtmuller have a large collection of tubes and curious appliances for conducting a series of experiments on sugar beets.

The Reno paper company has a fine display.

W. J. Luke displays buggies and wagons. A. H. Manning has a handsome display of stoves and farm implements.

THEO. WINTERS.
Theo. Winters has a fine display of fruits, vegetables and cheese for which he is so famous.

Mrs. Riley has on exhibition this year unusually large and fine displays of fruits, jellies and preserves. They are handsomely arranged and a center of attraction. The exhibit is not up to the usual line in the fruit display this year, but every other department is well represented. The Pavilion is a distinguished success this year.

Still Growing.
A glance at the map of Powning's Addition shows that with but very few exceptions all of the most eligible lots have been sold. Along the entire river front, or Riverside Avenue, there are only three corners left, while on Second street there are but four that are not sold. People wonder how it happens, but Reno keeps on growing just the same, and those who are still hunting bargains should buy a lot in Powning's Addition while lots are yet reasonable.

Removed.
The sample office of Wanamaker & Brown has been removed to the Fletcher building one door north of the Justice Court. The finest line of samples of ready made and tailor made clothing on exhibition. Prices lower than the lowest. Quality, fit, etc. guaranteed in every particular. Call and inspect the goods. A31f
